Finalists for the 2012 Gulf Coast State College Distinguished and Rising Star Alumni Awards Announced

Panama City, FL – Finalists for the prestigious 2012 Gulf Coast State College Distinguished Alumni Award and Rising Star Alumni Award were named during the GCSC Foundation's Annual Meeting on February 3. These awards spotlight the outstanding career and community service accomplishments of GCSC alumni.

The 2012 Distinguished Alumni Award Finalists are:

- Maria Baugh, Managing Editor of Food Network Magazine and Co-Owner of Butter Lane Cupcakes
- Capt. Kerry “Ric” Corley, Senior Marine Surveyor and Marine Investigator
- Bo Rivard, Partner with Harrison, Rivard, Duncan & Buzzett Attorneys at Law

The Finalists for the 2012 Rising Star Alumni Award are:

- David Herndon, Relief Pitcher with the Philadelphia Phillies
- Sarah Kemper, Advanced Clinical Educator and Stroke Coordinator with Gulf Coast Medical Center
- Ms. Michele Ramsey, Labor & Delivery RN with Gulf Coast Medical Center

The community is invited to join the GCSC Alumni Association in recognizing these outstanding finalists and honoring the Alumnus of the Year at the Distinguished Alumni Award Presentation & Dinner on April 12 at Captain Anderson's. For event information, sponsorships and reservations, please contact the GCSC Alumni Office at (850) 873-3583, e-mail alumni@gulfcoast.edu, or visit www.gulfcoast.edu/alumuni.
