
EDUCATION: ELEMENTARY

EDE 2300, Introduction to Teaching Methods II Introduction to Teaching Methods II

3 hrs., 3 crs.,

Prerequisite: EDF1005. (Offered spring). This course focuses on the essential teaching methods needed by K-6 educators in alignment with FLDOE competencies and national, state, and district standards. Course content emphasizes research-based best practices and a comprehensive overview of teaching elementary-level (K-6) math and science development, instruction, and assessment.

EDE 2310, Introduction to Teaching Methods I Introduction to Teaching Methods I

3 hrs., 3 crs.,

Prerequisite: EDF1005. (Offered fall). This course focuses on essential teaching methods for K-6 educators in alignment with FLDOE competencies and national, state, and district standards. Course content emphasizes research-based best practices and a comprehensive overview of teaching ELA (English Language Arts) and social science content literacy development, instruction, and assessment.
