

- 1) Volunteer Developer AmeriCorps position- If you are interested in Communications, Public Relations, or Volunteer Management, this is the service experience for you to gain professional experience in the field. This position may also work well for individuals who are interested in Coaching or Non-profit Management. This position is a National Service AmeriCorps opportunity located in Panama City. The successful candidate will have a passion for service and good outreach and computer skills. As an AmeriCorps member, you will be required to serve 1700 hours between the time of enrollment and July 31, 2021, and must go through a background check. You will work with a passionate team, recruit volunteers that will help with community outreach events, and assist in our Career Center Labs. If you are interested in interviewing for this position, please complete the AmeriCorps Interest Form.

- 2) Career Campus Support Specialist AmeriCorps position- If you are interested in IT, Programming, Instructional Design, or Adult Education, this is the service opportunity to gain real-world experience and add to your expertise and resume! The Career Campus Support Specialist AmeriCorps Member will serve 1700 hours between enrollment date and July 31, 2021. Tasks will include handling the support line for GWCareerCampus.com and GIBB Virtual Services, providing virtual assistance for individuals trying to enroll and navigate these educational programs. As an AmeriCorps Member, you will be required to complete a background check and maintain a consistent office schedule. If you are interested in interviewing for this exciting opportunity, please complete the AmeriCorps Interest Form.

- 3) Career Campus Trainer/Proctor- If you are interested in Education, Instructional Design, Website Development, Health Sciences, Culinary/Hospitality Services, or Business Management, this service opportunity will help you build your resume and gain valuable, professional experience in the field. The Career Campus Trainer/Proctor assists in facilitating both online and in-person adult classroom training in these fields. To view the types of classes you will be proctoring, visit GWCareerCampus.com. The Career Campus Trainer/Proctor will commit to working a set schedule to complete 900 hours of service between enrollment and July 31, 2021. As an AmeriCorps Member, you must complete a background check. If you are interested in interviewing for this exciting opportunity, please complete the AmeriCorps Interest Form.

- 4) Resource Connector AmeriCorps position- If you are interested in Psychology, Social Work, Human Services, or Public Administration, serving with AmeriCorps as a Resource Connector will give you real-world experiences in the non-profit industry and add to your resume. As an AmeriCorps Resource Connector you will work with individuals who live in poverty, are returning after incarceration, are homeless, have disabilities, or face other barriers to self-sufficiency. You will provide career and job counseling individually and in groups to help connect these community members to employment. The AmeriCorps Resource Connector will commit to serving 900 hours of service between enrollment and July 31, 2021, and will complete the background screenings required for national service. If you are interested in this worthwhile opportunity and would like to be considered for an interview, please complete the AmeriCorps Interest Form.