

The Beach Service of Rosemary Beach Property Owners Association (POA) provides beach chair set-ups, watercraft rentals and customer service to our owners and guest staying in Rosemary Beach. Rosemary Beach POA is looking for candidates interested in strengthening their skills in customer service, beach services and the hospitality industry in a resort community environment.

The town of Rosemary Beach aspires to be the best family beach community in the United States, driven by quality and excellence in everything it does. By preserving its architectural heritage, natural beauty and vibrant community spirit, Rosemary Beach will be a place that blends a tranquil residential area and active Town Center where residents, guests, and merchants live, work and play in harmony.

Summary Job Description: The Beach Attendant is responsible for the daily set-up and breakdown of equipment, assisting customers arriving, making reservations on our proprietary website for a variety of services, watersports and keeping the beach clean, flat and tidy.

Some of the benefits to working for Rosemary Beach POA are:

- ✓ Flexible Schedule – some weekends and holidays may be required
- ✓ Competitive Pay plus tips
- ✓ Team Environment
- ✓ Uniform Provided

Application Process: All applicants must pass a drug screen, be at least 16 years of age, and must be able to lift a minimum of 50 pounds. The work environment is primarily outdoors, so you must be able to work in the heat. You may call Chris Cummings at 850-231-1860 to schedule an interview or email your resume to chris@rosemarybeachfl.org.
