Additional Info:

The pay for a basic researcher is $10-13/hr. We offer opportunities for advancement in management. Our operating hours are 7 am to 7 pm, Monday-Friday. For part time, we could be very accommodating to the student's needs. However, in order to receive health benefits, student would need to exceed 25 hours per week. The job is 100% office-related. The background researcher looks for criminal records on candidates down to the county court level. It is very logically challenging. Understanding which avenues to pursue and which to end (like following a giant maze) is the hallmark of a good background researcher. We provide all training! The final results of a background screen allow a candidate to get or keep their jobs if they pass our background screens. Since we sometimes deal with Spanish-speaking companies or candidates, we consider employees who are fluent in Spanish an added bonus.
