

PARTICIPATE IN THE D.I.V.E PROJECT AND COOPERATION EDUCATION (COOP) COURSE!

Students, you are invited to participate during 2019 Fall Semester in the Diversity and Inclusion Valuing Engagement (D.I.V.E.) project that is designed to increase your cultural awareness and competencies.

What you'll be doing during the semester:

The learning is active through various project tasks such as:

- Attending and Promoting Diversity & Inclusion on Campus and in Lunch & Learn Meetings
- Researching and completing a project that examines an aspect of the diversity and inclusion issue
- Organizing Events with the Student Government Association (SGA) and Attend Meetings
- Participating in other Campus Events
- You may also volunteer at LEAD Coalition of Bay County, Chautauqua Charter School, and other non-profit organizations of your choosing

The benefits:

You'll gain exposure to new experiences that can broaden your point of view by meeting and working with others from diverse cultural, religious, racial and socio-economic backgrounds.

Become more prepared professionally to work and address issues in a diverse society!

Build community networks that can develop into future opportunities!

At project (semester) end:

Students will engage in discussions and their research surrounding critical community issues, as well as present their own findings during a final presentation event.

An additional benefit: Students may enroll in the Cooperative Education (COOP) course and earn 1 (one) or 2 (two) hours of academic elective credit by completing the tasks and assignments from the D.I.V.E. sponsor, Dr. Akiko Nakamura, Assistant Professor, Natural Sciences. For more information, please contact Professor Nakamura at: 850.769.1551 ext.5148 or anakamura@gulfcoast.edu
