FCLE Introductory Information Civics Literacy Competency

Civic Literacy, Course Competencies, and Outcomes: In 2020 the State of Florida added a new rule regarding Civics Literacy. The old Civics Literacy rule required all students to successfully complete AMH 2020 or POS 2041.

The new rule requires students to successfully pass AMH 2010 (effective Fall 2024), AMH 2020, or POS 2041 AND achieve a passing score on a Department of Education-approved civics exam--including the Florida Civics Literacy Exam (FCLE).

The four competencies as required with the FCLE include:

- An understanding of the basic principles of American democracy and how they are applied in our republican form of government.
- An understanding of the U.S. Constitution.
- Knowledge of the founding documents and how they have shaped the nature and functions of our institutions of self-governance.
- An understanding of landmark Supreme Court cases and their impact on law and society.

The Division of Social Sciences has created a Preparation Module for students wishing to prepare for the FCLE. The module is housed within a designated Canvas page. You can self-register for the Canvas Prep Module via the follow link: <https://gcsc.instructure.com/enroll/FNC8GL>

There also is a link within the module for you to register for the FCLE.

The FCLE is not part of the grading scheme for AMH 2010 and must be taken through the GC Testing Center.

NOTE: PASSING THE PRACTICE CIVICS LITERACY QUIZ WILL NOT GIVE YOU CREDIT FOR THE STATE-WRITTEN FCLE, WHICH MUST BE PASSED TO SATISFY THE CIVICS LITERACY REQUIREMENT.

How many test questions appear on the FCLE?

Approximately 80 test items appear on the FCLE.

What is the passing score on the FCLE?

The passing score will remain at 60 percent, which is 48 correct out of 80.

If high school students pass the FCLE, will they have fulfilled both the assessment and the course requirements?

No. Students who pass the FCLE in high school will still be required to pass an approved course once they enter the FCS.

THE FOLLOWING POLICIES APPLY TO ALL GULF COAST STATE COLLEGE SOCIAL SCIENCE COURSES

Social Sciences Policies AY 2025-2026

The following policies apply to all GCSC Social Sciences courses and should be included in all course syllabi.

Academic Integrity Policy - Honest participation in academic endeavors fosters an environment in which optimal learning can take place and is consistent with the college's mission. Academic misconduct, including cheating or plagiarism, is destructive to the spirit of an educational environment. Social Science professors report every instance of student academic misconduct to the college for inclusion in the student's records.

- “Cheating” includes but is not limited to the use of any unauthorized assistance in completing coursework.
- “Plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to, the use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment as well as the purchase of papers or projects.
- “Self-plagiarism” occurs when a student submits the same or considerably similar document to fulfill requirements in different classes. For example, if a student submits a term paper in Religion they originally wrote for an English class, this is self-plagiarism. Once a paper receives a grade in one class, it cannot be submitted again for another class.
- The use of AI software in any form to create class assignments may violate GCSC's Academic Integrity Policy. Before employing AI technology in any manner and to any degree, students should consult with their professors for all courses offered through the Social Sciences Division.

Sanctions for incidences of academic misconduct, depending on the severity of the incidence and/or its repetition, may range from receiving an F grade (or 0) for the test, assignment, or activity, to failure of the course, to suspension or dismissal from the college.

Student Accessibility Statement - Gulf Coast State College supports an inclusive learning environment for all students. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of this course that hinder your full participation, reasonable accommodations can be arranged. Before receiving accommodations, you must register with Student Accessibility Resources.

Appropriate academic accommodations will be determined based on the documented needs of the student. For information regarding the registration process, email sar@gulfcoast.edu or call 850-747-3243.

Recording Lectures - Under federal and state privacy laws, students may record class lectures for their own personal educational use, in connection with a complaint to the college, or as evidence in internal or external legal proceedings. Students may not publish or upload the recordings or any components thereof without the knowledge and written permission of the faculty member. Failure to obtain permission to publish could lead to the students having to pay damages, attorney fees, and court costs. For more information about what can be recorded, please see the guidelines in the GCSC Student Handbook: <https://www.gulfcoast.edu/current-students/student-handbooks/2021-2022-student-handbook.pdf>

Email & Voicemail Response Time - Instructors will check and respond to messages sent to their gulfcoast.edu email within 48 hours during scheduled workdays, barring illness or emergencies. The instructor may or may not check email during holidays or weekends. This policy also applies to messages sent via Canvas, as well as voicemails left on a provided phone number.

Attendance - Regular class attendance and participation are significant factors that help to promote success in college. In face-to-face courses, students are required to be in class at the beginning of each class session, as attendance will be taken at this time. If a student arrives late, it is his/her responsibility to inform the instructor after class of his/her presence. Failure to do so may result in the student being marked as "Absent." Attendance in an online/hybrid CANVAS class is defined as the submission of complete written assignments before their posted deadline.

Withdrawals - Students may withdraw themselves from any course until the published withdrawal deadline for that term in the Gulf Coast State College catalog. Students wishing to withdraw from a course and receive a "W" must complete a withdrawal form and submit this to the Office of Enrollment Services before the scheduled withdrawal date as published on the college calendar. If you feel you have a unique situation that warrants removal from all of your courses for a term after the withdrawal deadline has passed, you may contact the Vice President of Student Affairs to discuss your situation.

Consequences of Withdrawals - Two withdrawals are permitted per credit course. After that, a grade will be assigned. Please be concerned about withdrawals. When admitting students into certain programs, universities may calculate withdrawals as grades. It is your responsibility to verify the effects of enrollment and/or withdrawal upon your financial assistance (financial aid, scholarships, grants, etc.).

Incomplete Grades - Grades of Incomplete in any Social Sciences course can only be assigned to students who have an emergency arise during the last two weeks of the course.

To receive an Incomplete, students must:

- Submit a written request to the instructor before the last face-to-face class meeting.
For online courses, a written Incomplete request must be received no later than the week before the Final Exam period begins.
- Have completed no less than 60 percent of the course requirements and be passing the course at the time the request for an Incomplete is submitted.

Important Note: The Incomplete option provides 30 days from the date grades are due to make up any missing work; if work is not submitted during this period, the grade will automatically change to an “F” in Lighthouse.

ONLINE COURSE TIPS

Computer Systems

Check to make sure your computer is compatible with the Learning Management System (LMS) used to deliver and manage course content. A system check (analysis) is provided on the course login page (www.gulfcoast.edu/angel). Your computer needs to be configured per recommended settings. Failure to do so often results in test submission and other participative action errors. These types of errors are usually not accepted as an excuse for missed submissions.

GCSC Computer Lab

If you do not have access to a computer and reliable Internet connection at home, access to computer labs is available on campus. It is your responsibility to arrange for transportation to and from computer labs.

Student Computer & Learning Management System Skills

Basic web-browsing skills and understanding the functions of the LMS are required skills to function and succeed in an online course.

This course is taught completely (or partially) online via the Internet. You must have access to a computer with reliable Internet access to take this course.

Plan on logging into the course website (for each course) 4-5 times per week.

You should have a backup plan in place for those times when your regular method of accessing the online classroom is unavailable. Computer problems or Internet connection problems are not acceptable excuses for turning work in late.

Course Login

Courses become accessible on the first day of the class (depending on the term you are registered in— Term A, B, or C).

Tuition must be paid in full to obtain access to the course.

E-Learning Attendance Policy:

You must login and participate in an academic activity by the end of the first week of class to remain in the course.

Otherwise you may be reported as No-Show.

Testing

Even though your course is online, you are expected to come to campus to take exams or find an approved proctor (Testing Center will approve). You may also be expected to secure a professional proctor who monitors you during exams if you are unable to come to the Testing Center.

Suggested Study Time:

In order to be successful in this course, you will need to spend approximately 6-9 hours per week studying the material covered in class (3 credit hour course x 2-3 study hours per credit hour = 6-9 study hours per week). You will also need to have a good understanding of your learning style as well as the best time and place for you to study. To discover your learning style, go here: <http://www.how-to-study.com/learning-style-assessment/>

Study tips:

1. Organize your workspace and priorities.
2. Organize your time by using a planner and to-do lists, creating a model semester schedule, and breaking large tasks into smaller ones.
3. Allow extra time (overestimate the amount of time needed to complete a task).
4. Use “hidden” time to study, such as in between commercial breaks of your favorite show or when waiting for the bus.
5. Learn to say “no” to distractions or things that interfere with your main priorities.
6. Work with, not against, your personal time-clock (if you’re not a morning person, don’t schedule your studying for 8am).

Turnitin

GCSC maintains a site license agreement for an online text matching service called Turnitin. Turnitin will be used to help determine the originality of students’ papers, and to help detect plagiarism.

Netiquette

Netiquette is important when communicating with your instructor and your fellow students in an online course. Follow these guidelines:

1. Be clear.
 - a. Use Standard English and do not abbreviate.
 - b. Spell-check, revise and edit your messages before sending them.
 - c. Use appropriate subject lines that reflect the content of the message.
2. Be polite and careful.
 - a. Do not use ALL UPPERCASE LETTERS!!! or multiple exclamation marks, as this sometimes makes it difficult to understand the tone of the message.

- b. Typing in all capital letters is analogous to yelling at someone.
 - c. Similarly, avoid sarcasm and irony, which can be easily misinterpreted by the reader.
- 3. Demonstrate respect for the opinions of others when responding to your classmates.
- 4. Disagree respectfully and with facts, not gossip.
- 5. Be inclusive. Send group messages to all members as well as to the instructor to ensure that all lines of communication stay open.

Visit the following website for more detailed information and rules on Netiquette:
